SOMERSET.

Several of our citizens attended the spring festival at Chattanooga.

The new brick plant in the new yard is turning out 30,000 brick per day.

Dr. Reddick returned this week from the Medical Association at New Orleans. He had the opportunity of witnessing an operation for club foot by the famous Dr. Lorenz.

A fair crowd assembled at the court house Sunday afternoon to engage in the Union Sunday school services. Elders Simpson, Shadon and McMahon gave interesting talks, the latter presented an object lesson to the children, illustrating the comparative expenditure in the United States of flour, tobacco and whisky by means of white, black and red ribbons, the black and red far exceeding the white.

The contest between the Reds and Blues of the Christian Sunday school closed Sunday, singularly with a tie, 103 on each side, consequently they treated each other and the result was a big treat at the court house Friday night. It proved to be one of the happiest affairs of the season. The bountiful feast was served by several handsomely attired young ladies. The same pupils are now preparing for children's day, first Sunday in June.

Mr. Sam Higgins has recently sold four more building lots in the south end. Light and water will be extended to these additions and all these with the handsome new school building in this portion of the city will make it a very desirable residence section. The spirit of improvement in all parts of the city is very perceptible and if the moral and spiritual growth of each section will keep pace with the material development, we may expect to reach a higher plane of life in the near future, which the better class of citizens most earnestly desire.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c and $1.

It is said skin for grafting brings 50 cents per square inch and that a person in sound health might lose 20 square inches per month without suffering ill effects. Here is a chance for some get-rich-quick grafter to teach by mail every man to operate his own skin graftery in spare moments. Ten dollars a month for a little off-hour skin isn't so bad. This in conjunction with the declaration of Miss Talbot, of the Chicago university, that three nourishing meals can be served for 10 cents, should put the anti-poverty society out of business.

Mr. Joseph Pomerville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Craig & Hocker.

When young Reginald Vanderbilt was married the other day he gave his occupation to the license clerk as that of "gentleman," and when "Al" Adams, the "policy king," was placed in Sing Sing, Monday, his occupation also went down on the prison records as "gentleman." The word "gentleman" seems to be a sort of general term, intended to cover almost any male person who doesn't work for a living.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again" writes D. H. Turner, of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at all druggists.

Boys fishing in the Tippecanoe river near Warsaw, Ind., found the mutilated body of a man in a box floating in the stream. Appearances indicated that the man had been murdered.

The night has a thousand eyes,
And the day but one;
Yet the light of a whole life dies
When love is done.

A button was the only clue to the perpetrator of the New York plot to dynamite the Umbria, and all it required was pushing.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Fire destroyed the beautiful St. John's Protestant Episcopal Cathedral in Denver, valued at $100,000.

Epworth Leagues throughout the world celebrated the 14th anniversary of the organization yesterday.

Rev. Miller, of Covington, began a protracted meeting at the Christian church, Hustonville, last night.

Eight additions to the Presbyterian church at Midway was the visible result of Rev. L. O. Spencer's preaching at that place.

Rev. Charles Hutchinson, aged 82, one of the best known Presbyterian ministers in Southern Indiana, died at his home in New Albany.

Rev. C. E. Powell will preach at the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Haglin, will spend a few days with his parents in Shelby county.

Miss Ellen M. Stone has written a letter to the State Department at Washington demanding damages from the Turkish Government on account of her capture and imprisonment by brigands.

Rev. S. M. Logan, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, in a letter to P. F. Crooke says that he has a good church, like the people, like Wilmore, but that he often longs to get back to the hills—Middlesboro News.

The prayer meeting of the Christian church will be held at 7:45 Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. T. J. Foster. This is done at the request of Mrs. Foster, who took great interest in prayer meeting work while she was able to attend.

We made a mistake in the date in our announcement of the inter-denominational Sunday school convention to be held at the Christian church. It is Wednesday, May 27, instead of Friday, 29, as we stated. Rev. E. A. Fox will deliver three addresses.

Rev. F. O. Fannon, of the First church of Sedalia, Mo., will assist the minister of the Christian church at this place in a protracted meeting from Sept. 27th to Oct. 12th. The music will be under the direction of Prof. J. Walter Wilson, of Indianapolis, Ind.

MATRIMONIAL.

The Baroness von Wolfe, of Munich, Bavaria, is to become the wife of Dandridge Spotswood, of Virginia.

Joseph Moosbrugger, of Cincinnati, and Miss Emma Bless, of Ottenheim, will be married at Ottenheim to-day.

William Muir, aged 70, and Miss Celia Letcher, 50, both of the Parkville section, were married at Harrodsburg.

Charles L. Hock, convicted of manslaughter, was taken from Joliet penitentiary to Chicago, where he was married.

Mrs. Mollie Catron Campbell, of Somerset, was married at Louisville to Ira Stovers, a commercial traveler of that city.

In Mercer county Mrs. Bettie Scarborough secured a divorce from John Scarborough one day and married M. C. Bottom the next.

A rather strange case is reported from Big White Oak, Greenup county. About one week ago Charles Kelbler went to Portsmouth, O., and secured a license to marry Emma Peck. They were married by Magistrate Henry Hall on the same day. She told her husband to secure the license in her name as Anna Peck, but he being a German, made the mistake and gave the name as Emma Peck. After the ceremony all went well until the newspapers came out and the wife made the discovery that she had been married over the wrong name. She immediately proceeded to Portsmouth and together with Magistrate Hall went to the court house and had the name corrected on the records. It is probably the first case on record where a man courted a woman two years without knowing her name, but the happy bridegroom says he married the woman and not the name.

After a laborious search of the Scripture for a justification of the tobacco habit a subscriber of the Colon Express, who started in with the first chapter of Genesis, but reached the last chapter of Revelation without finding anything worthy of note, was swaying on the verge of despair when, in the middle of the 11th verse, at the second clause, he paused, read twice, slapped his leg, took a fresh chew and read aloud: "He that is filthy let him be filthy still."

It is not always that a search for truth is so well rewarded. A soldier of the Civil War having been reproved by a chaplain for drunkenness contrary to divine will, replied: "Well, now, parson, I have searched the Scripture from kiver to kiver and I find only one instance in which a man ever called for water, and he was in hell!"

The Charles M. Schwab Free Industrial School at Homestead, Pa., was dedicated Saturday with appropriate ceremonies. Mr. Schwab was present and delivered a speech to his old friends and neighbors.

NEWS NOTES.

A judge at Omaha enjoined a woman from talking.

Another Negro church was dynamited at Evanston, Ill.

Senator Joe Bailey made $50,000 on a Wall Street investment.

Capt. William F. Norton, of Louisville, died at San Diego, Cal., where he had gone for his health.

June 4 has been fixed upon as the date for the public reception to Gen. J. Franklin Bell at Shelbyville.

Postmaster J. Robert Redmon, of New Haven, who was struck by a passenger train, died of injuries.

Henry Berg, a Washington ranchman, shot and killed his six-year-old foster son and committed suicide.

Burrell Jones, a negro, was arrested at Somerset on the charge of murdering a baby. Mob violence is talked of.

The home of James Bell, in the district of Lawrenceville, Pa., was burned down and his two children perished.

Frank Murphy, of Ensley, Ala., failed to pay a fine for using profane language over a telephone and was sent to jail.

Near Lagrange, William Kelly, a farmer, mistook his son, Morris, for an intruder and shot him. The son may die.

A woman who kept a confectionery store at New York was killed by an explosion of carbonated gas used for making soda water.

Wife Murderer McCarty, who was to have been hanged at Lexington Friday, cheated the hangman by committing suicide with poison.

A jury has been secured in Madisonville to try the cases of Deputy Sheriffs Lindie, McIntosh and Johnson, charged with killing Henry Taylor, a miner.

John Black was hanged in the jail at Louisville for the murder of his uncle, Archie James. His neck was broken.

He went to his death without a tremor. Mrs. A. E. Leland, of Cincinnati, angered by an adverse decision of Judge Luaders, attempted to blind him by throwing cayenne pepper in his eyes.

In a pistol encounter between Arch Masden and his brother-in-law, Chas. L. Ausserahl, in Louisville, the latter was killed. Masden was badly wounded.

F. M. Hutcheson has been appointed press representative of the fair and carnival which the Knights of the Macca-bees will give in Lexington May 25 to 33.

A new oil and gas concern, to include 16 companies in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, will be incorporated in Pennsylvania at once with a capital of $6,000,000.

The executive committee of the Kentucky Press Association accepted an invitation to hold the next meeting of the association in Lexington, and fixed July 22 as the date.

A son of Attorney General Knox, a nephew of Judge Taft, governor of the Philippines, and two companions were arrested in Connecticut on the charge of assaulting a man.

A party of Americans stormed the stage in a Manila theater and broke up the performance because one of the actors, following the requirements of the play, tore down an American flag.

Vine Bryant, a Negro, who shot and wounded Leslie Hackett, was hurried from the court room at Hickman, after getting a five years' sentence, to prevent the enraged spectators from lynching him.

Fast passenger train No. 102, north-bound on the Illinois Central railroad, was wrecked at McHenry. The engine and six coaches left the track and Engineer Matthias and Fireman Kerr, both of Louisville, were killed.

A disposition to discredit the reported hold up of the Negro rural mail route carrier at Gallatin, Tenn., is shown by the post office department and Postmaster General Payne may reconsider his determination to abolish the route.

A bloodless shooting affray occurred in Jackson as the result of taunts cast at Stewart Hager by South Strong. The former put a bullet thro' Strong's coat and later defied arrest. When Deputy Sheriff Noble attempted to arrest Hager an exchange of shots followed and no capture was made.

When you want a pleasant physiotherapy Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Alexander Isaacs, a Richmond cooper, had three fingers sawed off while at work.

Will Strunk, tried at Williamsburg for killing Jeff Coffee, was given a life sentence.

Henry Stinnett, aged five, was drowned while playing in a pond near Lawrenceburg.

Stephen Anderson, claimed to be the oldest white man in Mercer county, is dead.

Senator John Bennett is dead at Richmond after a long illness. He was 61 years old and unmarried.

In a fight over a crap game near Monticello, Perry Walls shot and fatally wounded Silas Wilcher.

Owen Spencer, who killed Green Lewis at Pine Knot, Whitley county, was acquitted at his trial at Williamsburg.

Editor U. S. Rexroat, of the Albany Journal, and who used to run a paper at Liberty, was arrested for selling whisky illegally.

Clark & Herald, of Lexington, have been awarded the contract of constructing the extension of the Richmond public building. The firm bid $15,958, the work to be completed by Oct. 15.

The L & N. has purchased all of the crude oil that is produced in Knox county and is hauling it away. Fifty tank cars have been ordered and several are now in Barbourville, waiting to be filled.

Gen. O. O. Howard, founder of the Lincoln Memorial School, at Cumberland Gap, and other institutions, is riding alone through the mountains of Eastern Kentucky to investigate conditions, with a view to ending feuds.

The main oil pipe line from Somerset to Manchester, has been tested and the result is very unfavorable. The pressure was so great that the line, which is of six-inch pipe, leaked at the point where it crosses Goose creek, in Clay county, and at 19 other places between there and Somerset.

This horrible story is sent from Somerset: "The newborn baby that was found on the steps of an old colored man in this city, is dead. Burrell Jones, a young Negro, is in jail charged with its murder. Jennie Jones, a young white woman, who is a cripple and almost helpless, stated to the county judge that it was her child and that Jones was its father and took the child, as she supposed, to care for it."

At the examination of teachers at Barbourville it developed that a number of the applicants for certificates had been supplied in advance with the question lists paying therefor $12 to $14 each. A young man accused of making the sales has left town. A similar state of affairs was discovered at Grayson and warrants for several persons have been issued. It is said that men of some prominence will be implicated.

A Kansas City dispatch says: Judge Andrew F. Evans, in the circuit court here decided against the heirs of Mrs. John Priddy, who brought suit to recover residence property in this city valued at $1,000,000. The property originally was a farm owned by Thos. Jones, who came to Kansas City from Kentucky in 1829, and who left land to his nine children, one of whom was Mrs. Priddy. Mrs. Priddy died and was buried in Oregon in 1892 and suit was brought by G. W. Priddy and other of her heirs. A tombstone bearing the date of Mrs. Priddy's birth, to establish the fact as to whether she was of age when she deeded away her share in the property, figured in the prosecution.

A Farmer Straightened Out.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Thomas Marcum, of Muskogee, I. T., a brother of the late J. B. Marcum, of Jackson, has written a letter to Lexington denying the statement of Judge Hargis that the Marcum family has been prominent in feud troubles. Mr. Marcum makes a plea for the enforcement of law in Breathitt county, saying he wants the guilty punished that the innocent may live in peace.

The motion for a writ of prohibition requiring Judge Cantrill to vacate the bench in the Caleb Powers case will be made before the court of appeals today by the Commonwealth. It is believed at Frankfort that Circuit Judge Benton, of Winchester, will be asked to try the case in the event Judge Cantrill is required to vacate.

Sale of Valuable Property.

ON TUESDAY, JUNE 2nd, 1903.

If not sold privately before, we will offer the well-known Fisher and Herring farm for sale on the premises in Lancaster, Ky., to the highest bidder. The sale is made for the sole purpose of dividing the property. The farm consists of 200 acres of highly productive land, partly located within the limits of the city of Lancaster, with a brick residence and substantial buildings of all kinds necessary to make a home attractive and comfortable, fronting on Richmond Ave. The land lies well, is under good fence, and in the highest state of cultivation, yielding abundant crops of hemp, tobacco, corn, wheat, blue-grass, etc. There is no better soil or more valuable property in Central Kentucky. It is well watered.

TERMS easy and made known by the undersigned, who will take pleasure in showing the premises to anyone. H. C. HERRING, MRS. SUSAN FISHER.

J. M. ALVERSON

AT this season of the year, in the bright and beautiful month of May, when the whole of nature seems a beautiful melody of song and sweet praise, with a drowsy hum of the bee, the sweet incense of flowers, the earth encased in a carpet of green, and the twitter of mating birds, it is well that men should forget their differences and dwell together as brethren. The lesson herein set forth should be well taken by democrats in Lincoln and Kentucky generally. The question of the nominations is all over, done and settled, the party has spoken and its selections made, and to insure a well-merited success, the first essential is harmony. The INTERIOR JOURNAL expresses the profound hope that all democrats will forgive and forget, let the dead past bury its dead; let all personal feeling be ignored for the good of the party as a whole and work together with a will to secure a democratic triumph in every district of the commonwealth. The election next fall is to be a forerunner of the general election which is to come next year and it is necessary that democracy should be ready and armed for the fray. Let us, therefore, get together.

AN obedient husband in Franklin county, Mo., was objecting to doing certain work about the house, says an exchange, and he quoted scripture to his wife, showing that the household duties should properly be assigned to the women. The good wife replied by reading to her astonished lingo II Kings XXI 13: "I will wipe out Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down." That husband has wiped the dishes ever since.

HON. WILLARD MITCHELL says at the proper time he will take the stump for his successful opponent, Mr. N. B. Hays, and the entire ticket. Good. Mr. Mitchell is made out of the right kind of stuff and such men can't be kept down long. Lincoln county people have always admired this fine young man and but for a desire to distribute the ticket they would have voted for him almost to a man in the recent primary.

GOV. BECKHAM'S private secretary is kept busy answering invitations from educational institutions, for the Governor to make commencement addresses, says a Frankfort dispatch. This being his busy season, he will be compelled to decline such invitations.

THE brilliant young editorial writer of the Advocate, Mr. Craig Ralston, has accepted a position with the Courier-Journal and that splendid all-around newspaper man, Mr. Owen McIntyre, is now editor-in-chief of the former paper.

POLITICAL.

The Pennsylvania libel law has so muzzled the press that even the weather man feels safe.

And wouldn't Roosevelt and Beveridge make the thinnest sort of a beverage?—Owensboro Messenger.

We are glad to note the fact that our friend, Jesse Alverson, won the nomination for representative.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Secretary Moody is said to have become tired of his duties as the head of the Navy Department and to be thinking of resigning.

The printers are all glad that Alverson, an attaché of the Stanford Journal, was nominated for representative of Lincoln.—Somerset Journal.

James L. Keach was elected chairman of the Indianapolis democratic city committee by a vote of 117 to 67 over John W. Kern, the Taggart candidate.

Cartoonist Charles Nelson threatens to sue Gov. Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, for libel unless the latter retracts a statement in which he called the artist an outcast.

Editor Allen, of the Cincinnati Democrat, says: "Grover Cleveland made such a witty speech at the St. Louis press banquet that Col. Craddock forgot to quit eating and missed his train."

Senator Tillman says the mention of Cleveland's name for President is an insult to 6,500,000 democrats.

Former State Senator Charles F. Burche, the confessed St. Louis boodler, in his statement before Circuit Attorney Folk, acknowledged that he was paid $500 a session for voting in the Legislature on corporation measures as "Bill" Phelps dictated.

Hon. J. Willard Mitchell, who was a candidate for the nomination for attorney general at the recent democratic primary election, called at democratic headquarters and conceded the nomination of N. B. Hays as attorney general. He also asked the privilege of delivering the certificate of nomination to Mr. Hays.

At a meeting of the republican State central committee in Louisville it was decided to hold a convention there on July 15 to nominate candidates for State offices. Delegates will be selected in the counties on the Saturday preceding, and the basis of representation will be one delegate for every 100 votes cast in the last general election.

The smiling reporter approaches Mr. Cleveland. Scene, Princeton, N. J. Mr. Cleveland smiles back. "Is it true, Mr. Cleveland, that you are a candidate for the presidency?" "I am very happy here." "A number of newspapers are printing very handsome notices of you." "I am very happy here." "Some definite expression on the subject from you would command wide attention at this time." "I am very happy here." "You look happy, Mr. Cleveland." "I am very happy here—Washington Star.

Representative Maynard, of Virginia, favors Senator Gorman, of Maryland, for the democratic presidential nomination, with Judge Parker, of New York, as his second choice. "My judgment is," said Mr. Maynard, "that a man like Parker would go into the Middle West and work wonders for the democrats. I even go to the point of predicting that Parker could carry Illinois. Our platform ought to contain three salient planks, namely, sound money, tariff reform and for anti-trust legislation. Upon such a platform Parker could win, in my opinion, in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Out in that country there is strong sentiment in favor of tariff reform. I believe that Gorman or Parker could enter the fight at the head of our ticket with absolute assurance of carrying Eastern States like New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Delaware, and, besides, Indiana, Kentucky and Maryland."

THIS AND THAT.

Dr. W. O. Bullock, a retired physician of Lexington, is dead.

Sybil Sanderson, the American operatic singer, is reported dead.

Mrs. Perlina J. Howard, aged 65 years, committed suicide at Hiseville.

An aged woman in New York laughed herself to death over a funny story.

Tucker W. Sullivan, a Green county farmer, was thrown from his horse and killed.

Six incendiary fires were discovered and extinguished at Terre Haute, Ind., in an hour and a half.

Ben Willis, colored, of Junction City, was run over by the fast Q. & C. train near that place Saturday night.

The annual encampment of the Kentucky Department, G. A. R., will be held in Louisville this week, beginning to-day.

Former Lieut. Gov. Clay Kooblock, of Louisiana, was shot and killed on the streets of Thibodaux, La., by a barber.

Yale students acting as strike breakers were pelted with decayed vegetables by striking teamsters and their sympathizers.

William Rogers Clay has been chosen to succeed the late Walter S. Bronston as Exalted Ruler of Lexington Lodge of Elks.

John Moebus, a well-known business man of Hamilton, O., was fatally shot by his son during a quarrel over Mrs. Moebus' estate.

One of the white caps of the Pope has been presented to Countess Spottiswoode Mackin, of St. Louis, for the academy at Nazareth.

Claude O'Brien, the boy murderer, in the Lexington jail under sentence of death, is seriously ill. He has symptoms of typhoid fever.

Within four hours after John Black was hanged eight persons were presented in Louisville's police court on the charge of murder.

A new independent distillery with a capacity of 6,000 bushels of corn daily is to be built at Peoria, Ill., by Louisville, Cincinnati and Terre Haute, Ind., whiskey men.

Circuit Judge Redwine has ordered a special term of his court beginning at Jackson May 25 to investigate the assassination of Marcus, Cox and Cockrell. Gov. Beckham will send troops to Jackson to preserve order and to protect the court.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gullede, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at all druggists.

FOR RENT.—Store-room on Lancaster street and law offices, formerly occupied by W. A. Tribble. Apply at this office or write to W. P. Walton, Lexington.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

T. M. Clarkson has bred back to Pence the fine brood mare, dam of the black mare, E. H. Beasley & Co. sold recently for $650.

DANVILLE COURT.—There were only a few cattle on the Danville market yesterday and no sales worth mentioning were made. The horse and mule market was also slow.

Hermis, the great Eastern champion race horse, has been sold to E. R. Thomas, of New York, for $60,000. This is the highest price paid for a thoroughbred horse in years.

LOST OR STOLEN.—From our stable Friday a sorrel horse about 15 hands high, blaze face and flax mane and tail, and right eye out but looks like glass eye. A reward for information as to his whereabouts. Bengé & Coulter, Danville.

Silas Sandidge, of the well-known and excellent family of Lincoln county, a brother of Chas. T. Sandidge who used to come here frequently, is engaged at the training stables of Messrs. Humble & Gibson at the fair grounds here.—Somerset Journal.

The stockholders of the Shelby County Fair have authorized an amendment to the charter of the corporation increasing the amount of indebtedness which the association may contract. The amount authorized is $8,000. The fair buildings were recently burned, and cost restoring them will amount to at least $7,500.

A PUZZLE.

This world is full of deception
How plain and easy to see
Each one defrauding the other

In every imaginable way to be.
Now friends just listen one moment
Tell me if this is not true:
Each should have God as our watch word

Right with us our life way all thro'
In all of our business transactions
Or troubles, tho' unfortunate they be
Remember that God sent us a Savior

Jesus, who died for you and for me.
Oh, sinners just think for a moment
Upon this subject so grand
Religion is something worth seeking
Now hear Him and obey His command
A puzzle here is but permit me to say
Long live to the editor of the I. J.

—F. L. DAVIS, Ottenheim.

The Best Liniment.

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

DR. O. B. FALLIS has rented Christian College, Hustonville, for another year. He has been exceedingly successful as a teacher during his sojourn in the West End capital and the people generally will be glad to learn that he will be with them another year at least.

AT John Coulter's sale at McKinney Friday the lively stable building went to James Coulter for $357. J. H. Boone, of this place, bought a pair of black horses for $211 and a mare for $43. The other horses sold fairly well. The buggies and drummers' wagons went at good prices. A milk cow brought $41.

"ON Tuesday evening, Jan. 6th, Mr. Frederick J. Hoffman, of the College piano department, made his first appearance in concert since his return from Europe. An improvement pianistically was noticed in his conception of the classical and modern compositions embraced in his program. The cultured audience assembled were justly pleased with Mr. Hoffman's artistic performance as evidenced in their profuse applause."—The Musical Courier.

DINK FARMER, who came within a few votes of getting the nomination for jaller two years ago, announces this issue for another trial for the office. "Uncle Dink," as his friends call him, is as good a democrat as ever made his mark under the rooster and there is no doubt about his competency to make a good jaller. He has helped elect many a democratic ticket in Lincoln county, has never held office and his friends think it is now his time for preferment. Mr. Farmer has a strong following all over the county and he will make a formidable candidate for the office.

I HAVE a black sow that weighs about 175 pounds in the stray pen. She is not marked. Owner can get her by paying for this notice and her keep. R. G. Jones, Marshal.

QUIT.—Mesdames Lee and Murphy did not find the millinery and dress making business a successful one from a financial standpoint and have closed their store in the Elmore block.

WHILE drilling for water at Lancaster a considerable flow of gas was struck. As gas in that good town is more abundant than water, there is a general disappointment at the strike.

THE old toll gate house on the Stanford pike near Danville, burned Saturday night. It is believed that it was set afire. The property was owned by Miss Nannie Barbee, of Danville, and was occupied by a colored woman.

JOHN S. LEE sold to John G. Warner, of Kendall, his farm of 84 acres, near Waynesburg, for $900. He bought of T. M. McMullin his farm of 60 acres for $800. Mr. McMullin bought of W. C. Childers his farm of 48 1/2 acres, in the same section, for $600.

THE L. & N. will sell tickets to New Orleans at one cent a mile May 16th to 21st on account of the U. C. V. These tickets are limited to leave New Orleans without validation until May 24. By deposit and upon payment of 50 cents an extension of limit returning can be secured until June 15.

THE county meeting of the Christian churches at Hall's Gap Saturday was a success from every standpoint. A splendid program was carried out, brotherly love and good will was greatly in evidence and a dinner fit for the gods was enjoyed. Over 500 people were present and there was enough left when this vast throng had eaten to feed as many more.

FINED.—John Riggsby and Logan Thompson, two solid citizens of the East End, were tried before a jury in Judge Bailey's court Saturday and fined $2.50 each for not working the county road. Mr. Moser, the road overseer, prosecuted them. They swore that Mr. Moser let them off to go to the Brodhead fair and Dr. E. J. Brown testified that Mr. Thompson was physically unable to do hard labor, but the jury stuck it to them just the same.

"In the Beethoven Sonata op. 31, No. 2, Mr. Hoffman showed dignity of interpretation and vigor in presentation. The phrasing was characteristic and the rhythm sharply defined. In the Adagio movement there was considerable tenderness and sympathy displayed and the finale was crisp and swinging, despite the intricacies of working-out. In general, Mr. Hoffman's readings may be characterized as thoroughly thoughtful, sincere and musical."

STANFORD people generally heard with much regret the death of Mrs. Maude Myles, wife of Prof. Charles W. Bell, of Harrodsburg. She was well-known here, where she visited in her younger days. A Harrodsburg dispatch says of her: Mrs. Bell was one of the best known women here in church and social circles and was a member of the Christian church. She leaves a husband, Prof. Bell, principal of the Harrodsburg graded schools; an aunt, Mrs. Hanna Potest, and several more distant relatives. The body was interred in Springhill cemetery.

SOMERSET officers were here Saturday night, having driven from Somerset with the Negro, Burrell Jones, charged with killing the white child left on the door step of another Negro there. Jennie Jones, a white cripple, confessed that the child was her own and that Jones, who is father, took it and she supposed he was going to care for it. Later the mother died and fearing mob violence, Jones was ordered to the Danville jail for safe keeping. Officers slipped him from the Somerset jail and drove through with him, knowing that it would be dangerous to take the train at Somerset with him. The good people of Pulaski are naturally indignant and if given a show they would make short work of the Negro.

CURTAINS and shades at Severance & Son's.

COW peas, case seed and millet seed at Higgin's & McKinney's.

THE home of Mrs. Ella Rose, near Hustonville, was taken down at $2,900 at the sale Saturday. Mr. John Lutes, of this place, was one of the bidders.

SALE OFF.—The trade between Messrs. T. M. McMullin and W. C. Childers, of the Southern End, is off and the sale advertised for the 27th will not occur.

MR. HENLEY V. BASTIN was elected an assistant professor in Purdue University, at Lafayette, Ind., yesterday, which is a very high honor for one of his age. He was one of five chosen out of 150 students for this position. He graduates in June. Mr. Bastin is a Lincoln county boy and his friends are glad to hear of his good luck.

THE stores of Cocking & True and F. M. Ware at McKinney and the post-office at that place were broken in to Friday night. The former's door was broken open and considerable clothing was taken. Some padlocks, cartridges etc., are also missing. Mr. Ware's door was also prized open, but we are unable to learn what he lost. Nothing is missing from the postoffice. An attempt was made to get bloodhounds from Wilmore, but Mr. Milliken, the owner of them, was in another part of the State with his dogs.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Theodor's Black-Draught should be used.

Another draft is to be made upon the gigantic working power of Niagara falls. On the Canadian side in the Victoria park, a new power plant is under construction. Its first section, now being built, will provide 50,000 horse power, by means of five generators of 10,000 horse power each. This is twice the capacity of the separate generators now used on the New York side. By increasing the size of the generators, it is found that the cost per horse power is lowered. By means of cables, the New York and the Canadian plants will be connected for parallel operation.—Scientific American.

Her Mistake.

Mrs. Newbridge—See here! When I gave you that pie you promised to saw some wood.

Hungry Hank—Well, you oughtn't to've gave me the pie first, lady.

"The idea! Of all the impudence!"

"Dat ain't impudence, lady. I mean I just ruined de saw tryin' to cut the pie."—Catholic Standard.

She Thought of Him.

Creamley—I didn't know you were acquainted with Miss Lovett. She asked me last night if I knew you.

Hoamley—That was nice of her. What led her to ask you that, I wonder?

"Why—er—I had just asked her if she could imagine anyone uglier than Bill Thompson."—Philadelphia Press.

Following a Prescription.

Larry—How did Murphy break his arm?

Denny—Following the doctor's prescription.

"Phwat?"

"Yes; it blew out av th' window, and Murphy went after it."—Philadelphia Record.

Record Shoemaking.

A pair of women's shoes made in Lynn, Mass., to establish a record for rapid shoemaking, required 57 different operations and the use of 42 machines and 100 pieces. All these parts were assembled and made into a graceful pair of shoes, ready to wear, in 13 minutes.

Fully Explained.

"Pa, do captains of industry wear uniforms?"

"No, my son."

"Why not?"

"Because they need loose clothes that have plenty of pockets in them."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Johnnie's Suggestion.

Johnnie, a bright boy of six, while being dressed for school, observing his little overcoat much the worse for wear, and having more mended places than he admired, turned to his mother and asked her:

"Mother, is father rich?"

"Yes, very rich, Johnnie. He's worth $2,500,000."

"How, mother?"

"Oh, he values you at $1,000,000, me at $1,000,000 and the baby at $500,000."

Johnnie, after thinking a moment, said:

"Mother, hadn't you better tell father to sell the baby and buy us some clothes?"—Chicago Journal.

Weird Stunts.

The Siamese descriptive reporter, when he writes English—doesn't, so to speak. Here is an extract from the report of a murder which comes to hand by the latest exchange from Siam:

"Shooting Outrage. O! Fearful Agony! Khooon Tong, one of Phya Song's staff, was on a mission to Lam-poon, and on his return instantly shot dead by some miscreants, secondaries! O! untimely death. O! fearful! All friends expressed their morn'e. The cowardice dog is still at large. Six soldiers and six policemen were at once dispatched."—London Express.

What Did She Mean?

They were at supper. Between the courses the young man with the voracious appetite discoursed eloquently on things in general.

"Do you know, Miss Dash," he remarked, "I think there is a very intimate relation between our food, and our character. I believe, don't you know, that we grow like what we are fond of."

The fair girl smiled sweetly.

"How interesting!" she murmured.

"May I pass you the ham, Mr. Jones? I am sure you will like it."

And the young man relapsed into deep thought.—London Answers.

There should be but one question to consider in deciding where to take your Prescriptions, and that is: Where are the best Drugs and most accurate compounding to be had? No motive or influence should be allowed to weigh against it. When you do this we shall expect to serve you. When we fill your prescription every drug that enters into it has the exact potency the physician desires. Our charges are just as satisfactory as our service.
